

K.D. Smith Design produces custom soft furnishings for private homes and businesses and provides experienced, personal service to each and every client.

Throw cushions & shams, bench cushions, bed linens, window treatments, table linens, wall hangings and more are built with a dedication to high quality workmanship and detail.

Expertise in working with unusual textiles has produced many unique pieces – past client projects have included reworking antique tapestries and imported weavings into throw cushions; infant's clothes into heirloom quality quilted throws; rugs into wall hangings; and antique blankets into box seat cushions.

K.D. Smith Design also brings eight years of visual retail display experience from New York to the Portland area. Consultation regarding projects and pricing of display pieces is available.

Excellent references available, both private and retail.
